

Holistic Competencies

As the world moves towards knowledge-based economies, increased emphasis is being placed on graduates' acquisition of holistic competencies along their disciplinary knowledge.

How holistic competencies can be integrated into the curriculum and assessment?

How can students document these learning outcomes as part of their learning process through a pedagogical driven system

